Kermit Gosnell is now serving a life sentence in prison for manslaughter of a woman who sought an abortion and for the infanticide of unborn babies whose spinal cords he snipped with scissors after he pulled them from the womb. This was a common practice in Gosnell's filthy abortion facility in Philadelphia, PA. Ann and her husband, Phelim, tell the story of Gosnell's "House of Horrors" in their book and movie: "Gosnell." # CHOOSE LIFE LICENSE PLATES NOW AVAILABLE

From the Nebraska Department of Motor Vehicles website

Nebraska Choose Life license plates are now available through the Department of Motor Vehicles.

The plates are available with a personalized message of your choice or with a department-designated alpha/numeric combination.

There is no limit to the number of eligible vehicles owned by an individual that may be registered with a Choose Life plate.

A Choose Life alpha/numeric license plate costs $5. These plates are assigned an alpha/numeric combination by the DMV. This combination is issued in consecutive order in the order in which applications are received. Requests for specific alpha/numeric combinations cannot be accepted.

A Choose Life message plate is $40. If submitting your application for a personalized plate by mail, you will be asked to submit multiple message selections. Your message is limited to five capital alpha or numeric characters. Be certain that each choice you submit is acceptable to you. Your first choice, if available and approved, will be processed. If that is not available or is denied, the DMV moves to your next choice. Once your application has been processed, your message choice cannot be changed and no refunds will be issued.

Message availability can be checked on the DMV's online specialty plate system at <https://www.nebraska.gov/dmv/splate/index.cgi>.

Once your personalized plate is processed, you will receive an approval notice in the mail that includes the date that your plates will be available at your county treasurer's office.

The license plate fee is due at the time of application and again at each annual renewal. Plates are renewed in the month of the vehicle's registration renewal.

When applying by mail, be sure to include a check or money order with the appropriate plate fee made out to
